Biography

Corine Gholam Fawaz is a Lebanese contemporary painter based in Beirut. Her abstract practice explores color, fluidity, movement, and emotional presence, creating works that bring character, depth, and identity to both spaces and visual experiences.

Her paintings are rooted in intuition, mindfulness, and nature, translating inner landscapes into compositions that invite stillness, connection, and contemplation.

Her work has been exhibited internationally across Lebanon, Italy, France, Spain, Qatar, and the United States.
